World Wide Notary Completes over 3,000 eNotarizations in North Carolina

Vernon, TX—(01/24/08) World Wide Notary's (WWN) electronic signature and electronic notarization solution DigaSign is being utilized by ISP Sports in Winston-Salem, NC. ISP Sports, the nation's largest and fastest growing collegiate sports marketing company, invoices their clients for monthly broadcast services. Each invoice is required to be notarized. "This was a very laborious process that required three employees working most of a week to manually print, sign, notarize invoices then fold and stamp envelopes. This process can now be done with one notary and the witnessing employee in a matter of hours and they are ready to email their customers a tamper sealed PDF invoice and they're done," said Sheila Hemphill, Vice President of Sales for WWN. "DigaSign has saved ISP Sports a significant amount of money and reduced the time employees spend completing the task. Our company is now more efficient...thanks to DigaSign," said Jamie Frye, Assistant Vice President - Radio Administration for ISP Sports.

DigaSign is an Internet application that allows any Windows-based document to be e-signed, e-notarized and e-delivered within a secure environment. DigaSign features three signing options: Sign Each, Sign Once / Accept Each or Sign Once / Apply All that is used by ISP Sports. With DigaSign, e-signature and e-notarizations can be acquired from multiple remote locations in minutes and ready for exportation as a tamper sealed PDF files for secure delivery anywhere.

"The advantages to doing your notarizations electronically are now just overwhelming. You can do your work faster. You can do it when and where you want to do the filing. You can get confirmation that your filing has been accepted. The bottom line is that it saves your business time and money to do notarizations this way."

--Elaine F. Marshall, NC Secretary of State

"We are pleased and proud to provide such a powerful product for the broadcasting industry. We knew that their unique workflow would benefit from DigaSign and result in reduced cost and produce a tremendous return on investment (ROI). DigaSign produced over a 600% savings on employee time and cost the first month. DigaSign has now proven that any industry that needs signatures and or notarizations can now reap significant savings," said Bob Rice, CEO of WWN.
